"Our foster parents understand the children they are caring for every day. Normalcy parenting gives them the space to build a sense of family by making decisions within the foster family," DCFS Guardian Debra Dyer-Webster explained to the Statewide Foster Care Advisory Council members last fall.

Since parenting a child involved with the child welfare system comes with shifting challenges and unique experiences, caregivers had many questions since the normalcy concept was originally unveiled last year. In the months that followed, Dyer Webster invited foster parents to provide input as the policy was written. The new policy was overall health, safety, and well-being of the child.

- The best interest of the child information known by the caregiver;
- The importance and fundamental value of encouraging the child's emotional and developmental growth gained through participation in activities in his or her community;
- The importance and fundamental value of providing the child with the most family-like living experience possible; and
- The child's behavioral history, ability to safely participate in proposed activity.

A caregiver is not bound to a child.

Make the contents of the secret budget and Amnesty bill public immediately

Dear Gov. Ralph S. Northam,

As an American voter I demand that the President and all elected officials in Virginia make the contents of the secret budget and Amnesty bill public immediately and give the media and voters like me at least a week to read, understand, and react to the bill before voting on it. There is currently a plot in motion to put Amnesty for illegal aliens into the secret budget bill and have Congress vote on it before Americans can even know or react and this is not the kind of behavior and abuse of power we pay taxes for. We demand to know what is in the secret bill and to have plenty of time for discussion and debate before any votes!

The enemy is sending in illegals to lobby your lawmakers and buying expensive full page ads this week!

More on this issue below

Conservative Americans are being kept completely in the dark about the secret Amnesty provisions for illegal immigrants being negotiated behind closed doors by the conference committee on the budget deal bill that must be voted on by this Friday, February 15, 2019, to avoid another government shutdown.

Americans for Legal Immigration PAC is calling on DC lawmakers and the media to put the secret Amnesty deals on full display immediately as the current plan seems to be to ramrod Amnesty into law later this week while allowing the American public the smallest window of time to read, understand, and react to what is in the secret budget bill.

"The secrecy around the budget bill negotiations needs to end immediately, and the American public deserves to know what scale of Amnesty for illegal aliens is in this secret bill," declared William Gheen, President of ALIPAC. "Amnesty destroys all walls and barriers and attracts more illegals into America at a time when new estimates say we have more than 22 million illegals in the USA with another 5 million inbound in the next 12 months. The illegals are coming for the very legislative Amnesty Congress is considering behind closed doors today, and if President Trump signs an Amnesty bill for DACA Dreamer illegals, America is all over but the crying. Americans deserve an end to this secrecy and more time to react to what is being put in this secret budget bill."

While ALIPAC believes Amnesty is in the budget bill because of reports indicating Trump's lifelong Democrat son-in-law Jared Kushner has offered Amnesty to the Democrats in return for wall funding, and the Trump administration endorsed and backed three Amnesty bills in 2018, which were defeated in Congress, that traded Amnesty for millions of illegals for construction monies and promises of future immigration law enforcement.

President Trump has tweeted he is open to Amnesty for illegals as part of a larger deal (View Tweet), and said in his State of the Union address he wanted to increase legal immigration levels beyond their current historic high levels.

Yet, there is no information found in President Trump's State of the Union address or border rally speeches about erasing and upending the current immigration laws of America to accommodate and please Democrats and their new bloc of millions of illegal alien voters , and the DC lawmakers speaking to the press are not discussing those details of the bill with the American public.

Trump knows his support levels would plummet among his own base if he speaks openly to audiences about his below deck efforts to give Amnesty to illegals.

Yet the power groups supporting "immigration reform" Amnesty for DACA and Dreamer illegals as a prelude to full Amnesty for the estimated more than twenty million illegals in America know and are mobilizing today!

The pro-Amnesty Republican Koch Brothers are sending young illegal aliens to DC this week to lobby lawmakers for Amnesty, and the same Silicon Valley CEOs who have been censoring conservative voices on Facebook, Twitter, and Google/Youtube have paid for an expensive full page ad in the New York Times today extolling their desire for legal status for illegal immigrants!

While Trump voters, Republicans, conservatives, Constitutionalists, and American patriots who have risen up and stopped all Amnesty bills in DC since 2004 are being kept in the dark, the pro-Amnesty groups are going into full mobilization!

ALIPAC is working to warn all Americans that Amnesty for illegal aliens is a core part of the current secret budget bill negotiations, and while the power groups that support Amnesty are fully mobilizing, Americans may be left with only a matter of hours to react to the text of the bill when released before Congress votes on it.

The DC elites are operating in secrecy and planning to ramrod nation-destroying Amnesty for illegal aliens into law while depriving American voters and elected officials an opportunity to even know what Congress will be voting on.

For more information about the secret Amnesty in the budget bill or to schedule interviews visit www.ALIPAC.us

Mr. Sean Callahan

Re: Vinnie Chand - Conditional Pardon

Response to Brian Moran's email to Rep. Elizabeth Guzman's office.

Revised on February 25, 2019

First, I want to say thank you for responding to my email. I'm very grateful to you for taking interest and attempting to get some answers for me. I appreciate you reaching out to Brian Moran and having a telephone conversation with him. The email he sent you after your conversion was discouraging. It sounded like a scathing indictment from a prosecutor. He left out so many facts and refused to say anything positive regarding the merits of my clemency petition. For example, he says I "allege" that I had a toy gun as if that hasn't been proven. The detectives found it and it was part of the evidence. It's not my claim, it's a fact. It's interesting how he didn't mention that I prevented a 9 year old rape victim from being murdered. The man who raped her was plotting from behind bars to have the little girl murdered before he faced sodomy and sexual abuse charges at his upcoming trial. The murder plot was in place and ready to be executed by the man's brother and a gang member named Marcellus Smith. When I found out about the murder plot, I immediately notified law enforcement and agreed to wear a wire inside the jail for 2 days. After those two days the inmate was charged with Attempted Aggravated Murder, Conspiracy To Commit Aggravated Murder and Solicitation to Commit Aggravated Murder. The young girl's mom and Deputy Drew Wattier both wrote letters on my behalf advocating for my release. Here's a few paragraphs from the letter Deputy Drew Wattier wrote for me. "In summary, Chand's cooperation was invaluable and without question assisted in the successful filing of the charges listed above. Finally, and perhaps even more important was the fact that his assistance helped to prevent a 9 year old from having to take the stand since the additional charges motivated Bernal to take a 30 year plea deal. I have been employed as a Deputy Sheriff for over 13 years. I am a member of our Special Operations Respond Team, have been a Field Training Officer for over 11 years, am a certified Instructor of numerous classes, and do not go out of my way to advocate for inmates. I am however operating under the values, visions, and goals of our department which promotes incarnation as a means of rehabilitation back into the community with the hopes that the person will be a positive contributor to society. Those that actually use incarceration as a means to turn their lives around are far and few between based on my experience and exposure. That being said, when Chand asked me to write a letter on his behalf documenting how he had provided me with information which proved to be of major importance, and how he demonstrated behavior consistent with a model inmate, I agreed that his request was something I believed was not only justified but well earned. Chand has informed me many times during our conversations that he is well aware that poor decision making and criminal thinking has been the cause for his actions. He has accepted responsibility for his poor decisions, admitted that his huge mistakes caused innocent people harm, and understands that he will be sentenced as a result. Only Chand truly knows if he is remorseful for his criminal actions and only Chand truly knows if he can and will change his criminal thinking once he has served his sentence for his crimes. Based on my conversations and interactions with Chand, I do believe he is different from the majority of the inmates I have come in contact with. His overall thought process and ability to deliver well thought out ideas in an articulate manner suggests that he possesses an intelligence that is not common among inmates. If Chand truly is remorseful and ready to change his life as he so states, I do believe he possesses skills that could afford him the ability to be a positive contributor in society and I hope he gets a second chance to prove himself." Mr. Moran also forgot to mention that Deputy Wattier stated in his letter that I prevented an escape attempt and an assault on deputies. In a separate letter, Nancy Scott, the young victim's mother writes, "In a way, Chand gave me and my family a second chance and now I'm asking you give him a second chance. He saved my daughter's life and now I'm asking you to save his." Those were just two letters out of many. In separate unrelated cases, Commonwealth Attorney, Alex Rueda from Loudoun County and Commonwealth Attorney, Richard Conway from Prince William County both wrote letters on my behalf as well. These letters were all included with my clemency petition. More importantly, I mailed them to Mr. Moran along with the Court transcripts from my closing argument and sentencing hearing, and yet he acts like he's never seen them or read them which means one of two things. His assistants either made the decision to not forward them to his desk or he did receive them and didn't bother to read them. That's bureaucracy at work. I have sent Mr. Moran at least 6 letters in the last two years and I never received a response nor do I think he read them. If he had read them, he would've had a more in-depth understanding of my case rather than sound like a prosecutor giving a statement to the judge at my sentencing hearing. For example, he says during the robbery my car was towed and I forced a passerby to give me a ride to the airport. Mr. Moran didn't mention that I never assaulted the driver. I never laid a finger on him. I never raised my voice to him. I did not take anything from him, and offered him $200 for giving me a ride which he declined. That was in his statement to police and he testified to that. I do think those little facts are important.

Mr. Moran also said, "He has only served approximately 7 years." I was arrested on June 4, 2011 in Eugene, Oregon and extradited to Virginia 8 months later. I've been incarcerated 7 years and 8 months. I find it interesting how Mr. Moran casually uses the word "only," as if 7 years is not a long time. I bet if you put Mr. Moran in a prison cell for 7 months, you'd see a physical difference in the man and that's not taking into account the emotional and psychological affects. Just imagine what kind of difference you would see after almost 8 years. Mr. Moran says "only 7 years" as if I'm a murderer, rapist or child molester. I should have received a 5 year sentence, not a 40 sentence. Murderers, rapists, child molesters and violent offenders who have harmed innocent women and children receive lesser sentences than me. It's in the newspapers everyday. When I was reading Mr. Moran's email to you, I was struck with the realization that he was probably reading from a presentence report written by a parole officer. These bureaucrats don't care about you as an actual person. They don't know anything about your personality or character. They don't know about your past or childhood. They don't know about your strengths and weaknesses. They don't know about your hopes and dreams or your ability to accomplish them. They don't know about your family or the opportunities you may have waiting for you. They don't know the actual person. They only care about your convictions, the nature of your crime and how much time you've served. You might be extremely intelligent, charismatic, ambitious, creative, funny, likeable, passionate, and have the ability to become a success story, but they'll never know, so your potential will be wasted and you'll remain a statistic locked away in one of their oppressive and dehumanizing prisons.

If I told you about the things that I've seen and experienced in prison, you wouldn't believe me. You would think I was lying or exaggerating. I understand why the recidivism rate is so high. It makes sense now. By the way, in the past year, I've been assaulted 3 times. I never fought back because I feared that fighting back may jeopardize my clemency petition. It hurt my pride and ego to not fight back, but getting home to my family is more important than an image or reputation in prison. I want to go home and be a positive role model to my Nephews and a successful entrepreneur, not a tough guy in prison.

I said this before and I'll say it once more. I'm not a murderer, I'm not a rapist, I'm not a child molester, I'm not a drug dealer, I'm not a gang member, I'm not a drug addict, I'm not a terrorist, I have never abused a woman or a child and I'm not a corrupt politician or Wall Street Executive who engaged in fraud by ripping off millions of Americans for billions of dollars.

Let me put something in perspective for you. The man who raped and sodomized a 9 year old girl and then orchestrated a plot to have her killed before his trial date neared received a 30 year prison sentence. I committed a nonviolent robbery with a toy gun and I was the one who prevented the murder plot from being carried out when I quickly notified law enforcement and agreed to wear a wire inside the jail for 2 days after I found out about it and yet I received 10 more years than the man who raped a child and tried to have her killed. If that doesn't shock your conscience, I don't know what else to say. If you want legal documents and Court transcripts to verify everything I'm telling you, just ask me and I'll send them to you. I personally don't like people who play the race card, but we all know that race plays a factor in our criminal justice system. Is it no wonder that the child rapist and potential child killer is White and I am South Asian. I really do hope the media picks this story up because it would be interesting to see Brian Moran or the Governor's Office answer tough some questions rather than sending out emails vilifying me. Did Mr. Moran tell you that my mom offered to hire a lawyer for me and that I told her that we should pay the victims back instead. That instead of hiring a lawyer, I paid the victims back a total of $4,600. That I confessed to the crimes from day one and never denied my involvement. The only reason why they gave that much time is because they hate the fact that I represented myself, went to trial and did a pretty good job of pointing out the flaws in the criminal justice system and pointing out how a young prosecutor can be so overly ambitious that they set aside sensible and logical positions. An intelligent and articulate person of color holding up a mirror to the deeply flawed system made them react the way a vampire reacts to garlic and sunlight.

I submitted my clemency petition for a conditional pardon back in April of 2016. I've been waiting for an answer for 33 months now. That's 3 months shy of 3 years. The Robert Mueller investigation will have taken a year less to complete.

Note: Mr. Mogollon, can you please forward this email to Brian Moran. I would greatly appreciate you doing that for me. It may actually spark his curiosity to get all the facts about my clemency petition. It may also awaken his humanity which tends to get lost in politics, statistics and bureaucratic paperwork. Please send me an email and let me know if you forwarded my email to him and if he responds. Thank you so much for your time and energy. It means more to me that you realize. As an inmate, I feel unseen and unheard like Patrick Swayze in the movie Ghost.

His assistants either made the decision to not forward them to his desk or he did receive them and didn't bother to read them. That's bureaucracy at work. I have sent Mr. Moran at least 6 letters in the last two years and I never received a response nor do I think he read them. If he had read them, he would've had a more in-depth understanding of my case rather than sound like a prosecutor giving a statement to the judge at my sentencing hearing. For example, he says during the robbery my car was towed and I forced a passerby to give me a ride to the airport. Mr. Moran didn't mention that I never assaulted the driver. I never laid a finger on him. I never raised my voice to him. I did not take anything from him, and offered him $200 for giving me a ride which he declined. That was in his statement to police and he testified to that. I do think those little facts are important.

Mr. Moran also said, "He has only served approximately 7 years." I was arrested on June 4, 2011 in Eugene, Oregon and extradited to Virginia 8 months later. I've been incarcerated 7 years and 8 months. I find it interesting how Mr. Moran casually uses the word "only," as if 7 years is not a long time. I bet if you put Mr. Moran in a prison cell for 7 months, you'd see a physical difference in the man and that's not taking into account the emotional and psychological affects. Just imagine what kind of difference you would see after almost 8 years. Mr. Moran says "only 7 years" as if I'm a murderer, rapist or child molester. I should have received a 5 year sentence, not a 40 sentence. Murderers, rapists, child molesters and violent offenders who have harmed innocent women and children receive lesser sentences than me. It's in the newspapers everyday. When I was reading Mr. Moran's email to you, I was struck with the realization that he was probably reading from a presentence report written by a parole officer. These bureaucrats don't care about you as an actual person. They don't know anything about your personality or character. They don't know about your past or childhood. They don't know about your strengths and weaknesses. They don't know about your hopes and dreams or your ability to accomplish them. They don't know about your family or the opportunities you may have waiting for you. They don't know the actual person. They only care about your convictions, the nature of your crime and how much time you've served. You might be extremely intelligent, charismatic, ambitious, creative, funny, likeable, passionate, and have the ability to become a success story, but they'll never know, so your potential will be wasted and you'll remain a statistic locked away in one of their oppressive and dehumanizing prisons.

If I told you about the things that I've seen and experienced in prison, you wouldn't believe me. You would think I was lying or exaggerating. I understand why the recidivism rate is so high. It makes sense now. By the way, in the past year, I've been assaulted 3 times. I never fought back because I feared that fighting back may jeopardize my clemency petition. It hurt my pride and ego to not fight back, but getting home to my family is more important than an image or reputation in prison. I want to go home and be a positive role model to my Nephews and a successful entrepreneur, not a tough guy in prison.

I said this before and I'll say it once more. I'm not a murderer, I'm not a rapist, I'm not a child molester, I'm not a drug dealer, I'm not a gang member, I'm not a drug addict, I'm not a terrorist, I have never abused a woman or a child and I'm not a corrupt politician or Wall Street Executive who engaged in fraud by ripping off millions of Americans for billions of dollars.

Let me put something in perspective for you. The man who raped and sodomized a 9 year old girl and then orchestrated a plot to have her killed before his trial date neared received a 30 year prison sentence. I committed a nonviolent robbery with a toy gun and I was the one who prevented the murder plot from being carried out when I quickly notified law enforcement and agreed to wear a wire inside the jail for 2 days after I found out about it and yet I received 10 more years than the man who raped a child and tried to have her killed. If that doesn't shock your conscience, I don't know what else to say. If you want legal documents and Court transcripts to verify everything I'm telling you, just ask me and I'll send them to you. I personally don't like people who play the race card, but we all know that race plays a factor in our criminal justice system. Is it no wonder that the child rapist and potential child killer is White and I am South Asian. I really do hope the media picks this story up because it would be interesting to see Brian Moran or the Governor's Office answer tough some questions rather than sending out emails vilifying me. Did Mr. Moran tell you that my mom offered to hire a lawyer for me and that I told her that we should pay the victims back instead. That instead of hiring a lawyer, I paid the victims back a total of $4,600. That I confessed to the crimes from day one and never denied my involvement. The only reason why they gave that much time is because they hate the fact that I represented myself, went to trial and did a pretty good job of pointing out the flaws in the criminal justice system and pointing out how a young prosecutor can be so overly ambitious that they set aside sensible and logical positions. An intelligent and articulate person of color holding up a mirror to the deeply flawed system made them react the way a vampire reacts to garlic and sunlight.

I submitted my clemency petition for a conditional pardon back in April of 2016. I've been waiting for an answer for 33 months now. That's 3 months shy of 3 years. The Robert Mueller investigation will have taken a year less to complete.

Note: Mr. Mogollon, can you please forward this email to Brian Moran. I would greatly appreciate you doing that for me. It may actually spark his curiosity to get all the facts about my clemency petition. It may also awaken his humanity which tends to get lost in politics, statistics and bureaucratic paperwork. Please send me an email and let me know if you forwarded my email to him and if he responds. Thank you so much for your time and energy. It means more to me that you realize. As an inmate, I feel unseen and unheard like Patrick Swayze in the movie Ghost.

"It all changes when the people of Illinois put pressure on their representatives and their senators in the General Assembly, saying, 'Look guys, enough is enough. This system is broken. Put redistricting reform there's no choice, there's no alternative ideas debated in these races, and the people of Illinois don't have a real voice or a real choice. Democracy doesn't work on that basis."

This election year is the time for voters to bring these concerns to state legislators, lets foster parents make "normal" decisions emotional and developmental growth of the child.

"Our foster parents understand the children they are caring for every day. Normally parenting gives them the space to build a sense of family by making decisions within the foster family," DCPS Guardian Debra Dyer Webster explained to the Statewide Foster Care Advisory Council members last fall.

Since parenting a child involved with the child welfare system comes with shifting challenges and unique experiences, caregivers had many questions since the normally concept was originally unveiled last year. In the months that followed, Dyer Webster invited foster parents to provide input as the policy was written. The new policy was overall health, safety, and well-being of the child.

- The best interest of the child information known by the caregiver
- The importance and fundamental value of encouraging the child's emotional and developmental growth gained through participation in his or her community activities
- The importance and fundamental value of providing the child with a consistent, most family-like living experience possible, and
- The child's behavioral history and ability to safely participate in proposed activity.

A caregiver is not liable for harm to a child in a normally parenting situation.
